SAYS "I AM A BOLSHEVIK," IS CHEERED

Demonstration Takes Place in Assembly Last Night

CHAMBER PACKED

Mrs. Maud McCreary Makes Sensational Address

A mite of a woman, filled with the fire and zeal of a crusader, last night stood a crowd that packed the assembly chamber to the guards on its head.

Every corner of the chamber was filled and the crowd surged far out into the corridors. During nearly every minute of that time Mrs. Maud McCreary, long prominent in suffrage work in Wisconsin, kept the crowd in a tumult.

She was making a passionate plea for the common people of this country. She was asking for economic justice. She was arguing for the thousands of men who are being thrown upon the streets without work. With outstretched hands she suddenly exclaimed:

"I am a Bolshevik. How about you?"

This dramatic outburst brought the greatest demonstration of the evening. Conservative citizens and members of the legislature sat aghast at the outburst of spontaneous applause that greeted this statement.

It was an evening that had been arranged by Madison laboring men to discuss the questions incident to unemployment. Among the speakers besides Mrs. McCreary were Prof. John R. Commons and James Henderson, organizer of the International association of Machinists. Henderson is a distant relative of Arthur Henderson the English labor leader. William Kelly, president of the Madison union of machinists and recently fired from his job because of union activity, presided at the meeting.

Among other things which Mrs. McCreary said, were:

"Bolshevism to me is a condition of mind. It is an awakening of class consciousness on the part of the worker. It is a getting together and saying:

"'This is enough. Thus far you go and no farther.

"We fought, we sacrificed for this war that you told us was for democracy and now, by God, we are determined to have it.

"Any employer who thinks the workers are going to quietly accept layoffs now and cuts in wages with the cost of living as it is, is very much mistaken. We are determined to have justice and anyone who isn't willing to give it to us had better get out of the way or get trampled upon."

Discussing the Mooney congress Mrs. McCreary said:

"I want to bring to you the spirit of the Mooney congress that stood for the struggles of the workers everywhere for justice and realize the struggles that the Russians are making.

"A resolution was adopted, saying: 'Hands off. Let Russia work out its own salvation.'"

At this point there was a big demonstration from the crowd, which seemed to be in full sympathy with the speaker's remarks. Continuing Mrs. McCreary said:

"Realizing that it is dangerous to repress the feelings of people, that

LENROOT SAYS POMP CAUSES BOLSHEVISM

Wisconsin Senator Deplores Ceremony Shown In Europe

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Pomp and ceremony, attending the president's visit to Buckingham palace, is doing more toward spreading bolshevism in Europe than the feeding of the starving countries can do to prevent it, according to a speech made in the senate on Wednesday by Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, Wisconsin, although he means to vote for the $100,000,000 anti-famine bill.

Senator Lenroot declared that a greater share must be given the producer in that which he earns if radical labor activities are to be held in check.

"If bolshevism is a menace to any of the European countries," said Senator Lenroot, "it is not because of its origination in Russia. But is because conditions in the countries themselves have become intolerable, and should be remedied by the governments there.

"If I may be permitted to say it, the pomp and ceremony that is daily attending this peace conference in Paris, in my judgment, is doing almost as much to spread bolshevism as food can do to prevent it.

"The occurrence at Buckingham palace, a short time ago with dinner plate costing $15,000,000, the ostentatious display of bowing and scraping, the emphasizing of class distinctions over there, I say were most unfortunate at this particular stage of the history of the world. I am sorry that President Wilson, when he went to Paris, did not stay there, and attend to the stupendous work—the important work—in hand.

"True, the governing sovereigns of these countries have been showing President Wilson honor, but it is unfortunate that they have not recognized that when millions of people are hungry and starving, all this pomp and display emphasizes to them that here, is a class that has much, and here is a class that has nothing.

"I hope that during the balance of this peace conference all the negotiations may be conducted apart, and the less of this display in the future, the better augury it will be for a successful peace conference."

SUPREME COURT TAKES HAND IN PHONE CASE

Original Jurisdiction is Assumed This Morning

The Wisconsin supreme court will pass on the increase of telephone rates ordered by the postmaster general. Wednesday evening Attorney General Bliss filed an application with the supreme court asking leave to bring a suit to restrain the Wisconsin Telephone company from collecting these increased rates.

Thursday morning the supreme court agreed to assume original jurisdiction in the case and ordered the telephone company to answer or demurrer within ten days after service. The case will then be taken up on its merits. The application for a temporary restraining order was denied in order to expedite a review of the facts.

BUTTER DROPS

Makes Total Fall of 15 Cents in 2 Weeks; Demand is Low.

CHICAGO—Butter dropped five cents a pound today wholesale. This makes a total fall of 15 cents a pound in less than two weks.

Wholesale trade in butter today was described as not merely demoralized but paralyzed. Demand, both foreign and domestic, was almost at the zero point.

Stoppage of government and foreign buying as a result of cheap supplies abroad, especially from Australia and South America, started the decline. Excessive high prices in the domestic trade did the rest. Many retailers were said to be still overstocked with high priced butter and facing sharp losses.

VROMAN BLOCK SOLD IN BIG REALTY DEAL

Madison Realty Co. Becomes the Owner; Price $150,000

One of the biggest real estate deals in recent years was concluded today when the Madison Realty Company became the owned of the Vroman Block on N. Carroll street and the vacant corner at W. Mifflin and Fairchild streets. The purchase price is being quoted as being in the neighborhood of $150,000, the Realty Company turning in $75,000 worth of west side property in part payment.

Both parties to the transaction were represented by The Stark Land Company, A. T. Uehling and P. E. Stark, salesmen.

The Vroman Block has 45 feet front on North Carroll street, and is three stories in height. The two stores on the first flaar are occupied by the Graham Millinery Company and the Netherwood Printing Company. The second floor is occupied by the law offices of Mason & Stephens, Wisconsin Brick Company, Dr. L. W. Cunningham and others. The third floor is also occupied by offices.

The Vroman Block was owned by Mrs. Josephine V. Mason and her son, Vroman Mason. The vacant property on the corner of North Fairchild street and West Mifflin street, which is a part of the Vroman property, was owned by Charles E. Vroman, of Chicago, and his sister, Mrs. Josephine V. Mason.

The sale of this property recalls some interesting facts in relation to its ownership. One of the wealthy citizens and real estate owners of Madison from 1860 to 1880 was Nathaniel W. Dean. He not only owned the Vroman Block, which is being sold, but he also owner the Park Hotel property through to North Fairchild and the corner now occupied by the Vaas-Maaw Dry Goods store, besides other property. He had his offices and rea lestate business in the Vaas-Maaw store building. Upon the death of Nathaniel W. Dean, his executors, L. W. Hoyt, father of Frank W. Hoyt, and John S. Dean, brother of Nathaniel W. Dean, deeded the Vroman Block to William Vroman and George Bunker, in 1880. The firm of Vroman & Bunker then established a lumber yard on this site with their offices on the square at the present location of the Vroman Block, and the lumber yard in the rear on the corner of North Fairchild and West Mifflin streets. At that time the present Chapman Block was owned

Over $10,000 was paid by the Federal Government in salaries to the members of the three draft boards in Dane county. Serving on these boards were 16 members.

Outside of the city of Madison there were two local draft board districts in Dane county. The city of Madison was a district in itself. A complete report of the expenditures in all of the counties of the state was announced by Major E. A. Fitzpatrick, state draft administrator, today. The names of the members who drew the amounts, and the sums drawn by each are not made public in the final report. Only the aggregate sum paid in salaries to members of each local board are announced. In many of the localities of the state members of local board refused to take any salary.

The Amounts Drawn.

Following are the amounts drawn by members of the local board for the three Dane county districts in salaries:

Total Salaries of Members.

POWERS TO MEET ALL FACTIONS

Conference Will Take Place in the Sea of Marmora Feb. 15

STATEMENT ISSUED

Right of Russia to Settle Own Affairs is Recognized

PARIS—Led by President Wilson the supreme council of the great powers moved to unite the factions of distracted Russia and bring them into the peace congress.

They unanimously adopted a proposition brought forward by President Wilson, asking all Russian factions, including Bolshevists, to meet allied and associated governments at Prince's island in the sea of Marmora on Feb. 15, the contending factions meantime declaring a true and suspending military operations.

The joint session of the associated governments will be announced as soon as the Russian factions accept the proposal which was communicated to them by wireless.

The following statement was given out by the peace conference:

"The proposals of President Wilson were approved, including recognition by the associated powers of the right of the Russian people to direct their own affairs without dictation from the outside. The powers do not wish to exploit Russia.

Recognize Revolution

"The powers recognize the revolution and in no way countenance a counter revolution. They wish to serve Russia unselfishly, and invite all organized groups in Siberia or within the boundaries of European Russia as it stood before the war to send representatives to Prince's islands to meet representatives of the associated powers, provided there is a truce of arms meanwhile.

"Such representatives will be expected at the place appointed by Feb. 15.

"A plenary session of the conference Saturday will discuss Mr. Lloyd George's proposals for a league of nations."

The solution to the Russian problem proposed by the supreme council of the peace congress is considered here as the first visible manifestation and realization of American and British accord on great issues before the congress. This accord was pledged in speeches and in private expressions in England by both Pres. Wilson and Premier Lloyd George.

It is understood that in as much as the supreme council has accepted the American plan for the settlement of the Russian question, the British plan may form the foundation of the structure which the peace congress may erect to house the league of nations. Yet it is pointed out by observers here that this is a mere exchange of courtesy. The plan for settling the Russian question is virtually identical with that which Premier Lloyd George suggested in his note to Stephen Pichon, French foreign minister, on Jan. 5. It is understood that though no official admission has been made that the British plan for the creation of a league of nations is essentially identical with that which some American experts formulated after close study of every promising available plan among the two score which were presented.

Silent on Debt.

While yesterday's official statement was silent on the redemption of Russia's foreign debt there is reason to believe that assurances have been conveyed that the Bolshevists will recede from their threat to repudiate this debt in consideration of relief of desperate economic conditions in Russia. It is believed that assurance on this point induced France to sanction the plan which averts the spectre of financial loss to French holders of Russian securities.

WARM WEATHER HURTS ICE HARVEST

The warm weather has put a damper on the ice harvest. The ice crop is not damaged, say the dealers, but is not fit to be cut in its present condition. Lake Mendota ice is only 10 inches thick. Dealers have cut only enough to supply the local trade and are awaiting a cold wave to complete the harvest.

SWIFT SAYS THERE IS NO PACKERS' TRUST

Says They Were Not Given Chance to Reply to Heney Charges

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Testifying before the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce today, Louis F. Swift, president of Swift and company, asserted that such legislation as is proposed in the Sims and Kendrick bills would cripple the packing industry. He assailed the report of the federal trade commission as grossly unfair. He said that the hearings conducted for the commission by Francis J. Heney were one sided in that the packers were not allowed to answer any of the allegations made against them.

The witness charged that in another investigation of more than a year the commission was unable to deny that the profits of the packers were so small that they could be wiped out without affecting the price of livestock or the price of meat by more than a fraction of a cent per pound.

Says Profit Changes.

"This profit," continued Mr. Swift, "fluctuates from week to week and often becomes a loss. During 21 weks of the year ended June 30, 1918, for example, Swift and company either made no money at all or suffered an actual loss on its beef operations."

The witness denied that there was any combination of packers, and asserted that if there was it could not prevent losses.

"The only thing that is wrong with the packing business is the impression that something is is wrong," said Mr. Swift. "If that impression, which has been created by misstatements and the inflaming of public prejudices could be remedied the need for all this legislation also would be remedied."

The witness said that his company built refrigerator cars because the railroads would not, and that the 7,000 of these cars owned by Swift and company were 20 per cent below the firm's requirements. They were operated at a loss, he said. He had no objection to government purchase of them if adequate service were guaranteed.

"It looks to me as if the government were conducting an experimental operation with the packing industry as the patient. If the patient survives the treament it can be tried on other industries. We object to providing the clinic. There is just as much sense in a railroad building hotels to take care of passengers during a several days' stop over as there is in their building packing house branch houses. The branch house is not a freight terminal; it is merely a market house where food products are sold."

Mr. Swift testified that if the packers had been permitted to make answer at the Heney hearings they could have convinced any fair minded person that there is real competition in the business and that no irregular arrangements exist.

"I remember," he continued, "when we paid four cents a pound for good live cattle and the producer was satisfied. Now we pay 14 to 18 cents and nobody is satisfied."

The witness said that only two Chicago packers canned salmon, Wilson and company and Libby, McNeil and Libby. Of the 8,000,000 cases packed annually, he said Libby packs only 6 per cent and Wilson 1½ per cent.

This was in reply to an assertion which, Mr. Swift said, Chairman Colver of the federal trade commission had made, that since larger packers became "heavily interested" in canning salmon, its price had increased.

Mr. Smift said Mr. Colver had declared that large packers forced wholesale grocers to buy packers' breakfast food or be cut off from other packing products. The witness asserted that Armour, who was in the grain business before entering the packing industry, is the only packer handling breakfast foods.

Would Get Customers.

"I am sure," said Mr. Swift, "that if Mr. Armour would refuse to sell other lines of goods, it would be a great opportunity for Swift and company to secure a good customer and we would not hesitate to take this customer."

Mr. Swift said that the "proposed bill appears to provide definitely for government acquisition of refrigerator and stock cars, stockyards, branch houses and storage facilities, and that it also appears to provide for aperation under licenses of the facilities." He said that Mr. Colver explained that the purpose is first to utilize only the licensing provision, and if this fails to apply the more drastic features.

NOMINATION WITHDRAWN IS MYSTERY

Governor Asks Senate to Return Name of M. C. Mead, Plymouth

Gov. E. L. Philipp Thursday forenoon withdrew from the senate the nomination of M. C. Mead, Plymouth, whom he had designated to be a member of the state board of education. The governor's communication assigned no reason requesting only that no steps be taken toward confirmation. The senate acceded to his request.

At the executive office no reason was offered for the recall. Secretary L. C. Whittet said that no statement would be given out by the executive office as to the reason for the recall. The whole matter is shrouded in mystery.

Senator Wilcox's armory bill was introduced providing that for state aid to armories such structures to be used as memorials to soldiers of the world war. It carries an appropriation of $60,000.

Other bills were:

Zumach:—Providing that municipalities may mortgage municipally owned plants to acquire other utilities.

Pullen:—Repealing the act fixing the hours of rest for firemen and substituting the requirement that firemen shall be given such hours of rest as are necessary to health.

The senate passed the $33,500 appropriation for the free library. It memorialized congress to permit soldiers to retain their uniforms. Adjournment was taken until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

rent, and for supplies. This county therefore has the highest record in the state. Two counties had very small expenditures, and these expenditures were only for miscellaneous office expenditures. They were Oneida and Washburn.

Many in Refusal.

Under the Federal law members were allowed compensation if they desired it. Many members of the boards, both local and district, refused to take compensation and performed the services as a patriotic duty. Several methods of payment have been used. The first method was $4.00 a day; the second method was 30 cents for each questionnaire classified for the entire board; the third method was for the number of men sent into the service, and since Sept. 1, 1918, the pay has been at the rate of $1.00 an hour. The total amount paid in salaries to members of district board was $9,021.11; the employes of districts received $24,343.79; the traveling expenses of the district boards amounted to $2,975.62; and the supplies of the district boards amounted to $2,571.44. District boards spent for telephone and miscellaneous expenses $1,557.76.

The 104 local boards of the state expended a total of $441,246.06. Of this sum $242,692.78 was spent for salaries of members of local boards; $165,633.77 was spent for the salaries of employees of local boards; $12,197.70 was spent for physical examinations; rent amounted to $4,913.44, supplies $9,871.98 and telephone and miscellaneous the sum of $5,934.19. All members of medical and legal advisory boards served without pay.

A large amount of soldiers' mail from overseas was received at the postoffice Wednesday.

by the Odd Fellows Lodge, and there was a small building on it. This present Chapman corner was later purchased by Chandler B. Chapman who, at one time, owned the Dane County Title Company Abstracts. He was the father of C. B. Chapman, President of the Lake Forest Land Company, of Miss Anna Chapman, and the husband of Mrs. Sarah Chapman now a resident of Madison. The firm of Bunker & Vroman continued in the lumber business until Mr. Vroman died, about 1897. This property then descended to Mrs. Josephine V. Mason and Charles E. Vroman, the children of William Vroman. Upon the death of Mrs. Vroman, in 1918, one-half the Vroman Block was willed to Vroman Mason. While Bunker & Vroman were conducting the ulmber business on this corner, there was another lumber yard occupying the opposite corner, where is now located the Kroncke Hardware Company, Menges Drug Store, Savings Loan and Trust Company. This lumber concern was known as "Sorenson, Frederickson & Fish." They had their lumber yard and offices on the corner and their mill was on the present site of the MadisonHigh School. The senior member of the firm, Mr. Sorenson, moved to La Crosse in later years, and died there. His son, Ori Sorenson, was well known in Madison. At one time he was Mayor of La Crosse. Mr. Frederickson, the second member of this firm, was the father of John V. Frederickson and Albert E. Frederickson, who are now in the same line of business, under the name of "Frederickson Brothers." The junior member of the firm, Mr. Fish, is the father of William T. Fish, a present resident of Madison.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

MAJESTIC.

Did you thrill over Priscilla Dean in "The Brazen Beauty?" Then you will want to see "She Hired a Husband," her newest production, at the Majestic theater today only in what might well be called a twentieth century version of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." The love of a pretty society girl for a "cave-man" forms the theme of the story.

Get 7 Per Cent for YOUR Money

We are selling "across the counter" direct to Milwaukee and Wisconsin people an issue of $3,600,000 of 7%, 5-year, bond-secured Gold Notes of The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company. More than a million dollars' worth of the Notes have been bought in the first 30 days, mostly by Milwaukee people who know the Company and the property.

Issuance and sale of these Notes was authorized by the Wisconsin Railroad Commission to finance the growth of greater Milwaukee's electric service system.

These Notes are on sale in $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 sizes. They sell at par. Your Notes start drawing 7% interest for you from the day you buy them. You draw interest twice a year—May 1 and Nov. 1—by simply cutting off your interest coupon, taking it to the nearest bank, and getting cash for it. Principal of the Notes will be repaid in cash Nov. 1, 1923. These Notes are readily saleable in case of need.

Milwaukee is as solidly prosperous as any city in the world. This Company supplies virtually all of Milwaukee's electric power, light, heat and transportation services. The State-appraised value of the property back of the Notes exceeds funded debt by over $16,000,000. The State rate regulation law assures a reasonable yearly return on State-appraised value. Besides being a general obligation of The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company, these Notes are further secured by deposit of $4,500,000 of 40-year bonds of the Milwaukee Light, Heat & Traction Company with the First Trust Company of Milwaukee as Trustee for the Note buyers. These Companies, thus joint guarantors of these Notes, during their twenty-two years in business have never failed to pay on the due date every dollar of their obligations, with interest as agreed.

Is YOUR MONEY earning 7% with equal SAFETY? If not, we shall be glad to sell you some of these Notes.

Madison buyers are asked to ORDER DIRECT FROM THE COMPANY. Address: SECURITIES DEPARTMENT, Public Service Building, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. You can send payment with order, or, if you wish it, we will deliver the Notes in care of your home bank, C. O. D. If your home banker advises you not to buy these Notes, and tries to sell you something else paying a lower interest rate, you can tell him the Milwaukee banks have bought hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of these Notes, for themselves and their customers.

The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Co.

SMALL STUFF

LEGISLATION of some kind ought to be passed at this session of the legislature to prevent the state of Wisconsin from being held up to the extent of $300 whenever some lawyer decides that he can get away with it.

Our law, it appears, provides that in cases of contests that an amount not to exceed $300 is available for the contestant out of the state treasury with which to prosecute his claim, irrespective of whether he wins or loses.

The Metcalfe case in the assembly now appears to be a case of in point.

Frank Metcalfe was elected to the assembly by an undisputed majority of 548 votes. A certificate of election was issued to him.

A young lawyer named McLogan then appears upon the scene. McLogan appears to have won some local distinction in Milwaukee as a lawyer because of his ability as a marrying justice.

It further appears that McLogan is somewhat of a hustler and plugger for jobs. He is also very patriotic.

His sense of patriotism and his nose for fees attract him to a movement to oust socialists from the legislature,—AT SO MUCH PER.

He SOLICITS men who were defeated for the legislature at the hands of socialists for their cases. Among those solicited was the opponent of Assemblyman Knappe, a socialist. Knappe was elected by a majority of 2558 votes. Knappe's opponent apparently, was not interested.

But McLogan did business with a gentleman by the name of Werner, an employe of the Milwaukee gas company who was defeated by Metcalfe.

Witness the following agreement:

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 20, 1918.

I hereby retain Attorney Harry R. McLogan of Milwaukee, Wisconsin to represent me in the following matter:

To contest before the assembly of the state of Wisconsin, the election of Frank B. Metcalfe to a seat in the Wisconsin assembly. I agree to pay said attorney, Harry R. McLogan, for his services in said matter, including all costs and disbursements in said matter, the amount of three hundred ($300.00) dollars. It is, however, expressly agreed by and between said parties that unless Edward C. Werner is reimbursed by the Wisconsin Assembly for such attorney's fees, costs and disbursements, said Harry R. McLogan is to receive nothing for his services.

It is furthed agreed that all money received from the Assembly as reimbursement for expenses in said election contest is to be held by Edward C. Werner in trust for and paid over to said Harry R. McLogan.

(Signed) EDWARD C. WERNER,
Client.

I hereby accept the foregoing retainer.
(Signed) HARRY R. McLOGAN.

Werner, it seems has not taken enough interest in the case to put in an appearance at the hearing. McLogan appears to be the only interested one.

The Metcalfe case is a farce and ought to be summarily dealt with by the assembly. If members of the assembly are to be expelled simply because they are socialists ALL of the socialists will have to be expelled. The status of Metcalfe is no different than the other socialists.

And if the socialists members are to be fired it ought to be based on something more dignified than a marrying justice out to get fees.

We have had enough of this money making business at the expense of patriotism in this state. The assembly ought to put its seal of disapproval on that sort of thing.

THE NEW ORDER

WE want our readers to read an editorial entitled "The New Order" which we are printing on this page today.

It is reprinted from the St. Louis Republic which has always been looked upon as a conservative paper. It is owned by David R. Francis, ambassador of this country to Russia and himself a leading conservative.

It is an editorial written by a man who has vision. Here and there there are conservatives over the country who are displaying some vision. They have brains enough to know that the way to stop the waving of red flags and Bolshevism in this country is not to pass laws prohibiting these things but to get at the underlying troubles that are causing this world wide discontent.

Read this editorial.

NEW BANK UNDER WAY

WAUSAU—A new bank is to be established in Wausau. It will have a capital of $50,000 and will be organized under the state laws. An organization meeting is to be held soon.

HUNTERS BUSY

WAUSAU—Since the first of January bounty has been paid on 22 foxes and 5 wolves in Marathon county. The number for the season is about three times that number. The present high prices of furs has revived the hunting and trapping business. Trappers are meeting with much success.

NEENAH—With no cases of diphtheria developing following the exposure of 200 people at a social gathering, the city has gotten over its scare, but precautions are being taken against any spread of the disease.

The New Order

(From the St. Louis Republic.)

We are facing a new era.

The enemy without has been crushed face down into the dust; the enemy within is yet to be met.

The world has been made safe for democracy; our task now is to make democracy safe for all of God's little images.

There are 23,000 millionaires in America—23,000 men who have more than a thousand thousand dollars.

Because there are 23,000 millionaires in America, there are 2,300,000 paupers in America.

Unless the blood we have spilled to secure liberty for strangers has washed into the brains of the 23,000 and flooded their souls, the 2,300,000 will grow to 23,000,000.

And 23,000,000 hopeless lives means 23,000,000 Red flags.

Bolshevism?

The average American laughs at the very word. Ragged, unkempt, ignorant Russians! We are not moujiks. Perhaps not, but a hungry, overworked, underpaid human being is susceptible to the same emotions whether he lives on a Ural steppe or in a South Second street tenement. We laugh at the Bolsheviki.

The Romans laughed at St. Peter hanging head downward on the cross.

Louis XIV. jeered at the sans-culottes.

A yearning soul, an empty stomach and a sick heart cannot be laughed away.

There is only one way to meet them; satisfy the soul, heal the sick heart and fill the empty stomach.

That is the problem that America faces in the year of our merciful Lord 1919.

We cannot go on as we have.

We cannot continue to blight the lives of 1,000 workmen to make one millionaire.

We cannot continue to fatten the paunches of the rich with the milk taken from laborers' babies and bread from the mouths of their wives.

We cannot continue to feed the poodles of the wealthy with the meat that the laborer cannot afford.

The world cannot be made up half of Cains and half of Abels. We are brothers, children of the same benign God, and as soon as we thoroughly recognize that fact the sooner will the world be the good place to live in that it was intended to be.

We are not preaching Socialism. We don't know what Socialism is. We are trying to preach the doctrine of man's humanity to man. We are trying to open the eyes of our people to the shoals ahead—shoals that will wreck the craft of civilization unless we steer the life craft straight.

A benign Providence has seen fit to endow some of us with superior mental equipment and others with great physical strength. We don't believe, however, that a benign Providence intended that a nimble mind was to be used to prey upon less brainy brothers nor that a muscular body was to be employed to crush weaker brothers into the dust.

We are our brothers' keepers. It is the part of those who have great minds to use them for the benefit of their brothers and not for personal gain. It is the duty of those of great physical strength to use that strength to shield the weaker and not to take the subsistence from their faltering hands.

Achievement is not the biggest thing in life. Emerson pictured the man who built a better mouse trap than his neighbors as a figure worthy of great praise. We would not minimize achievement. Yet, if in building the excellent mouse trap, it was necessary for the inventor to ruin the business of six other mouse trap makers and underpay his own help, then he was a dismal failure.

We must learn the lesson of brotherly love. Those of us who are strong must help the weak. This will entail sacrifice, but no life is worth living without sacrifice. God sacrificed his own Son, to teach us a lesson that most of us appear to have forgotten.

Humanity should be the guiding star of life. If we learn to love our brother as well as we do ourselves, or even half as well, Bolshevism and anarchy will vanish like the dew under the morning sun.

We expect to elaborate on the trend of the new eera in future articles on this page. We pretend to no vast knowledge and to no profundity of ideas, but we feel that the subject is one that should be brought forth for contemplation and discussion.

Don't you think so?

THE "TWO-GUN" MAN

Will Nations Repeat The Holy Alliance

(From The Equity News)

The nations of the world are about to assemble in peace conference. They will assemble after a long and bloody war and in the midst of great revolutions which have shaken the foundations of society and government, and loosened new ideas which have profoundly affected trends of thought and action in every part of the globe.

But this is not the first time the nations have assembled under similar circumstances. Once before the rulers and statesmen of Europe gathered to restore the peace of the world, and likewise at a time when revolution had reared its head and new ideas in politics and government had agitated the peoples of the world from the lowest to the highest.

In many respects the world in 1815, after the Napoleonic wars, faced problems similar to those we are facing today, and certainly as important and difficult. The spirit of the great French revolution had swept over the world, testing political and economic institutions by a new and hitherto unrecognized standard. The American colonies of the British king had waged a successful war of liberation and established a form of government of, by and for the people, that was the extreme of radicalism in those times. An alliance of the nations of Europe had at last defeated Napoleon and ended a dream of world domination much like that which in 1914 launched the armies of the kaiser against the peace and safety of humanity. Then as now the rulers and statesmen met to restore peace and assure the future tranquility of the world.

FALSE PEACE MAKES MORE WARS

Who has read history so unintelligently and so completely failed to keep abreast of affairs in the world today, that he does not see the parallel?

The great powers a hundred years ago failed in the mighty work of reconstruction after world war and revolution. Their failure plunged Europe into the bloodiest century of its history. Their failure set the brakes on progress and reform, saddled new despotisms on suppressed peoples and actually sowed many of the seeds whose fruit was the carnage through which we have just passed, a hundred years later.

It is the purpose of this article to state as briefly as possible the lessons which can be drawn from the page of history, in the hope that now, facing similar conditions and problems, we and the peoples of other countries will profit by the follies and disastrous experiences of our great grandfathers.

The peace patched up following the fall of Napoleon, was the result of the Congress of Vienna of 1815, interpreted and enforced by the "Holy Alliance" of European powers, formed the same year.

The ideas of the French and American revolutions, which were abroad in the world, were that governments exist for the people, not that the people exist for governments or sovereigns, and that all men are born free and equal. The slogans of the French revolutionists and the revolutionary pronouncements of our own Declaration of Independence, the most inflammatory document in existence, made despots and tyrants tremble. The rulers and statesmen met, therefore, not only to remake the map of Europe, but to set up a barrier against the encroachments of the liberal doctrines which threatened the very foundations of society and government as they then existed.

DEMOCRACY CRUSHED IN SPAIN

The Holy Alliance of 1815 formed after the Napoleonic wars originally was an alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia, the three leading despotisms of Europe. Eventually, however, it included every state of Europe except Great Britain and Turkey. The announced purposes of the alliance, if they were ever sincere, were soon forgotten, and history records no blacker pages than those containing the acts of this league of nations, which became an instrument of sovereigns and aristocrats to crush political reform and liberalism. The sovereigns solemnly resolved, in the published purposes of the alliance, that henceforth they "would take the Christian religion as their guide and rule their states and regulate their conduct toward their citizens strictly in accordance with the precepts of justice and Christian love and peace, as set forth in the New Testament." The only trouble with this was that the kings of Europe were to be the judges of what was and what was not the meaning of the New Testament!

Ferdinand VII of Spain had ruled as an absolute monarch, but in 1812 the people had forced from him a constitution which he later disregarded, re-establishing the former autocracy. In 1820, after the formation of the Holy Alliance, the people of Spain revolted and demanded the re-establishment of the constitution of 1812. The Holy Alliance assembled at Verona in 1822 and decided to intervene in Spanish affairs, to suppress the revolt of the people against their autocratic king. France, on behalf of the alliance, undertook to invade Spain, and did so, although Great Britain, governed by liberal statesmen at that time, protested. With the help of the French army, the king of Spain was able to put down the revolution. The leaders of the Spanish people who demanded a constitution and the abolition of the autocracy, were hung and many thousands of others were thrown in jail. The liberal movement in Spain was crushed.

Almost all the states of Italy had been given to princes of the Austrian house as a result of the Congress of Vienna. Following the Spanish revolt, the people of Italy rose in rebellion against the Austrian tyrants, demanding Italian freedom and a constitution. The Holy Alliance met at Troppau in 1820 to consider this insolence on the part of the Italians, and met again the following year at Laibach. It was decided by the alliance to intervene, and Austria was commissioned to send an army into Italy and stamp out the revolt. This army overthrew the revolution just at a time when the liberals seemed certain of victory. The alliance had "preserved law and order" in Italy, and the foreign princes of the Austrian house were again firmly established as the overlords of the Italians.

OPPOSES LIBERALISM IN GERMANY

At about this time also, Germany demanded "law and order" treatment of the brand dispensed by the Holy Alliance. Here, too, the doctrine that all men were created free and equal and that sovereigns did not exist by divine right had gained ground. The liberal movement swept over Germany, the universities being hotbeds of the agitation. Students made demonstrations for the new ideas nad burned in the public squares books defending the old order. The Holy Alliance got nervous, and at a session at Carlsbad decided on repressive measures against the German liberals. A censorship of the press, barring liberal ideas, was proclaimed, and steps were taken to discipline the universities and place them under a strict control that would prevent agitation for a unified Germany under a constitution. These measures were effective. For the time being liberalism was crushed out in Germany.

The ruling spirit of the Holy Alliance was Prince Metternich, minister of Francis I, emperor of Austria. His doctrine is perhaps best expressed in a statement made by Francis I: "There are now new ideas in prrogress which I can not and will not approve. Whoever comes to me with new ideas can go or I will remove him."

In his "General History," page 511, Colby sums up the object of the Holy Alliance:

"It held that the interests of sovereigns were the same, that a revolt against the government of one was a menace to the power of the others, and that armed intervention on behalf of any ruler who happened to get into trouble with his subjects was the duty of other members of the league."

The policy of the Holy Alliance reached out across the Atlantic and stirred our young republic into action. The colonies of Spain in the new world revolted and established republics on the model of the 13 original American colonies of England, which had staged a revolution under those fiery radicals, Franklin, Jefferson, Washington, Patrick Henry and Thomas Paine. The Holy Alliance proposed to get Spain's colonies back for her and to teach the rebellious colonists a lesson in "land and order" and respect for duly constituted authority. But just two things saved the republics of the new world. President Monroe of the United States issued that famous pronouncement, the "Monroe Doctrine," and Great Britain, in control of able and liberal statesmen, was not a member of the Holy Alliance. The Monroe Doctrine demanded "hands off" in American affairs, and England backed it up. Thus, nearly a century before the Wilson declaration for "self-determination" of nations, the United States enunciated that great principle.

Will some such alliance as the Holy Alliance, in lieu of a Wilsonian League of Nations, result from the peace congress which is soon to meet in Europe and in which our own country will take a leading part. Do not scoff at the idea. Read the editorials in your daily newspaper or the articles and editorials in any of the big magazines! Not such a remote possibility after all, you'll say, if you have your eyes open.

The nations did not meet at Vienna in 1815 in a spirit of co-operation to make a peace of justice that would assure future world tranquility, prosperity and free development of all countries, big or little, conqueror or conquered. They met to divide the spoils. They met filled with jealousies, with hatreds, and prejudices, and above all with a desire to grab each for itself all it could, right or wrong. They met to remake the map of Europe by parceling out the weak nations among the strong, without the slightest regard for the desires of the peoples concerned. The "peace"—merely an armed truce—was signed finally by Austria, France, Great Britain, Prussia, Russia, Spain, Portugal and Sweden.

They gave Russia the duchy of Warzaw, about all that remained of Poland. They gave Prussia a part of Poland and Saxony. They gave most of Italy to princes of the Austrian house. They gave what is now Belgium to Holland. They gave the kingdom of Naples to Spain, and there were many minor territorial changes.

Practically all of these arrangements made to satisfy the avarice of the rulers and enforced regardless of the desires and aspirations of the peoples concerned, were doomed to failure. Nearly every one sowed the seed of a future war. An enumeration of the wars which followed, nearly every one traceable to the arrangements of the Congress of Vienna, or to the hatreds and jealousies growing out of these arrangements, attests the failure of the rulers and statesmen of that day to grasp the principles of international justice necessary to permanent peace.

Now that the nations are meeting again in a similar conference, will the result show that the lesson of 100 years ago has been learned?

Acid-Stomach Makes Millions Suffer Awful Miseries

MEN AND WOMEN LOOK INTO THIS. Study this picture carefully.

It shows clearly that doctors and scientists are absolutely right when they tell you that more than 70 non-organic diseases can be traced to an ACID-STOMACH, or as they call it, Hyperacidity.

You see here how it begins—the first symptoms, such as indigestion, heartburn, sour belching, disgusting food-repeating, retching, bloat, sour, gassy stomach, etc.

YOU SEE, TOO, WHAT ACID-STOMACH LEADS TO—how it saps the health and strength of the strongest bodies—how it brings on attacks of severe headache, nervousness, mental depression, insomnia, melancholia, irritability, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, biliousness, gastritis, vertigo, heart trouble, autointoxication, intestinal congestion, and intestinal indigestion and irritation which frequently result in ulcers and cancerous conditions.

Thousands—yes millions—of men and women suffer daily from these troubles and never dream that it is an acid-stomach that is the cause of their ill health.

BUT THERE IS NO NEED FOR SURPRISE. Think what acid-mouth does to the teeth. You can't detect the presence of the acid that forms in the mouth without a chemical test because it is absolutely tasteless. Yet it is so powerful that it eats right through the enamel—the hardest substance in the human body. And that is exactly what makes teeth rot and decay. No wonder, then, that excess acid in the stomach plays such havoc; causes so much misery—makes people so weak and ailing—unfit for either work or pleasure and brings on premature old age

Begins With

Indigestion
Heartburn
Belching
Food-Repeating
Bloat
Sour, Gassy Stomach

Leads To

Headaches
Nervousness
Insomnia
Vertigo
Melancholia
Rheumatism
Lumbago
Sciatica
Cirrhosis of the Liver
Biliousness
Impoverished Blood
Emaciation
Intestinal Congestion
Gastritis
Catarrh
Ulcer
Cancer
Heart Trouble
Etc., Etc.

Where Will It All End?

Where else can it end except in broken health, the dragging out of one miserable day after another, no energy, a prey to your own gloomy thoughts, the joys of life all gone? For in the end acid-stomach kills Hope, Ambition, Courage.

You need not suffer from the immediate effects of Acid-Stomach nor be a victim of its many evil consequences. Strike at once at the very cause of all this trouble—the excess acid—AND GET RID OF IT!

THERE IS A QUICK AND EASY WAY TO DO THIS. A wonderful new discovery makes it possible to remove excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is called EATONIC, made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. Their action in the stomach is a good deal like a piece of blotting paper taking up a drop of ink—they literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel them work.

It Is Up To You!

TRY EATONIC and see how quickly it banishes the immediate effects of acid-stomach—bloat, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, indigestion, etc. See too, how quickly your general health improves—how much more pleasure you take in eating—how much more easily your food is digested—how soundly you sleep—how nervousness and irritability disappear.

IT IS SO EASY TO GET THIS HELP—and it costs so little. So why continue to suffer another hour when sure, quick relief is at hand? Don't let acid-stomach wreck your health. Don't drag out your days feeling all in, down and out, weak and ailing. Give your stomach a chance to do its work properly. Get it in a fine, healthy condition—pure, sweet, strong and comfortable so that every mouthful of food you eat will be properly digested and register 100% in enriching your blood and building up your bodily strength.

If you are one of those who have "tried everything" but in spite of it are still lacking in physical strength and vigor, begin at once to take EATONIC. Don't put it off. Get back your physical and mental punch. Have the power and energy to work with vim. Enjoy the good things of life. Learn what it means to fairly bubble over with health. Like thousands of others, you will say that you never dreamed it possible that such a wonderful change for the better could be brought about so quickly.

EATONIC

FOR YOUR ACID-STOMACH

Ends—?

We repeat that, unless the harmful excess acid is removed from your stomach, a wrecked and broken constitution is almost sure to mark the end. You can so easily avoid all this misery just like thousands upon thousands of men and women have done and are now doing. Try Loganberry

Jiffy-Jell

The flavor is made from fresh Loganberries. We use many berries to make the flavor for a single Jiffy-Jell dessert.

The flavor comes in liquid form—in a vial. So it gives to Jiffy-Jell a wealth of fresh-fruit taste.

It comes ready-sweetened, and the cost is slight. A single package serves six people.

There are ten flavors, but try Loganberry. Ask your grocer for it now.

Try Pineapple flavor too.

ENGLAND IS NOW FACING BIG STRIKES

Industrial Unrest is Reported to be on the Increase

LONDON—Industrial unrest throughout the United Kingdom is on the increase. In addition to the threat of a railway strike, the Yorkshire coal field probably will be idle tomorrow throwing 150,000 men out of employment, while preparations are being made in Scotland for a general strike for a 40 hour week.

In Yorkshire the operators have locked out 40,000 men who insisted on taking 20 minutes of the employers' time for meals. In reply to the lockout the Yorkshire miners' association has declared a strike for tomorrow.

The dispute in London between the engineers and their employers has improved somewhat. Some of the employers have granted the demands of the engineering trade but the electrical workers are now threatening to strike.

Excuses A La Carte Baffle Wise Ones Used To Old Method.

"Maladies a-la carte" is the latest at the university clinic. Instead of patient and impatient waiting heretofore borne in agony by students waiting for excuses at the clinic and instead of taking precious moments of the best part of the doctor's day for the issuing of medical excuses, Dr. Evans, head of the clinic, has established a new system for issuing student excuses.

"The newly recovered one," applies to the clerk for an ordinary yellow card, yes, yellow, regardless of the malady, fills it out with name, college in which applicant is registered, standing, dates, etc., and with explicit confidence in the clerk, leaves all with her until the next day.

The next day, if the records at the clinic tally with the student's application, the necessary excuse is fortcoming, properly signed and testified to.

No longer will freshman English instructors have the privilege of telling their pupils to write on "The Ease with which Excuses can be Secured from the clinic." Woe—Alas for the English instructors.

SIGNS OF SPRING

Robin, Wild Geese, Street Flusher, Make Early Appearance.

Signs of spring.

Here's a record breaker. A robin is seen here the middle of January.

Mrs. E. Roloff, Mendota beach, reports that a robin has been peeping around their home. A flock of wild geese was seen flying over the lake the other day, too, she says.

Here Is Another.

More signs of spring.

The street flusher was turned loose on the city streets, today.

The first time in the history of the place, the flusher has been at work Jan. 22, said George Sullivan, street superintendent, this morning.

JOINT CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN TODAY

Armenian, Syrian and Jewish Relief Fund Asks Support of University.

The campaign among university students for the joint Armenian, Syrian, Jewish relief work began this morning and will last the rest of the week. Prof. L. B. Wolfenson is chairman of the campaign.

The Suffrage league with the cooperation of S. G. A. is managing the drive among the women. Each rooming house will be canvassed.

The American committee for relief in the Near East is striving to secure thirty million dollars with which to meet the urgent needs of war sufferers in the Bible lands. It is estimated that 4,000,000 Armenian, Syrian, Greek and other war sufferers in the Near East will require help to enable them to live through the winter. The vast majority of them are women and children.

President Wilson appeals to the American people for generosity to help "those who, through no fault of their own, have been left in a starving, helpless condition, and to help re-establish these ancient and sorely oppressed people in their former homes on a self-supporting basis."

ASK FOR R. O. T. C. AT UNIVERSITY

An application to the war department at Washington for an R. O. T. C. has been formally sent by the university this week, following a meeting of representatives of several state universities to discuss the matter. The application was sent two days ago, so the orders will probably be received here soon and regular work will be taken up. At present only about 200 men are being drilled.

SAYS PACKERS HIDE IN CLOAK OF CONTROL

Sen. Kendrick Charges Meat Men Guilty of All Accusations

(By the Associated Press)

DENVER—The five big meat packing firms of the United States were declared by Senator Kendrick of Wyoming here today to have such a control over both the producing and the distributing markets that they have the power "to commit all the abuses with which they are charged and more," regardless of whether there is an actual combination in that their representatives meet regularly on prices.

The senator, addressing the American National Livestock association convention, described a bill which he introduced to regulate the meat industry and said it ought to be possible to bring about a free market.

MADISON EDITOR SPEAKS TO CLUB

"Control of the Press" Subject of Speech Given at Press Club.

"Control of the Press," was the subject on which Wm. T. Evjue, editor of The Capital Times spoke to the members of the University Press club at their regular meeting last night.

Following the regular address an informal discussion in which Mr. Evjue answered questions of the society took place.

"The dark page in journalism today is the treatment of the common people," declared Mr. Evjue. "The press today is controlled, and we cannot have a democracy unless the people are getting the truth on accurate and honest information.

"The result of capitalistic journalism is class journalism. Farmers are beginning to combine and get out their own weekly papers and labor is doing the same thing."

$1125 TOTALS PURDY FUND

Check for $550 Sent to Mrs. William Purdy Yesterday.

A check for $550 was sent to Mrs. William Purdy, wife of the composer of "On Wisconsin," yesterday by Dean Goodnight after the news of Purdy's death reached the university.

The fund taken up for Purdy today totalled $1125.50. Of this about $674.50 has come to Dean Goodnight's office from alumni and friends. This sum lacks only $326 of reaching the $1,000 goal set at the beginning of the campaign for alumni contributions.

Allen Spafford reports that the student fund now amounts to $451. The goal among students was first set at $500 but contributions have been slow the past week.

The death of Purdy only makes the debt of Wisconsin to his wife and little children greater. They have been left practicall without resources and would be in untold distress if Wisconsin people had n t helped them.

DEANS OF MEN IN CONFERENCE

The first conference of the deans of men in the middle western universities has been called by Dean S. H. Goodnight to meet in Madison Jan. 24 and 25. Various problems common to all the universities will be discussed.

Among those who are coming are: Dean E. E. Nicholson, University of Minnesota; Dean Robert Renow, University of Iowa; T. A. Clark, chairman of senate committee on student interests, University of Illinois; Dean Louis A. Strauss, University of Michigan; and Dean Leslie I. Reed, Iowa State eachers' college.

ELEVEN ENTER N. O. L. CONTEST

Only ten men and one woman came out as contestants in the N. O. L. contest yesterday afternoon. Professor J. M. O'Neill of the department of public speaking explained the rules governing the contests.

Every undergraduate in the university is eligible for the contest but all who wish to go out for it must have their names and the subject of their oration filed in Professor O'Neill's office by Monday noon.

Wisconsin's War Record

Every citizen of Wisconsin should read this work; authentic and accurate; graphic and appealing. A new book just off the press.

Tells the story of the patriotism of the people in this great war; a dramatic account of the record of the Wisconsin National Guard in France.

How the Wisconsin farmer responded to the call of his country.

How the war was fought in the fields of Wisconsin, as well as at the front in France.

A complete and convincing answer to those who would belittle Wisconsin's work in the war.

Do You Know?

How many men Wisconsin sent into the service? How many casualties Wisconsin suffered? How many Wisconsin men lie buried in France? How many Red Cross nurses went from Wisconsin to France? What the women did in this war? How farmers increased food production? Did you know that Wisconsin's war contributions meant $145 for every man, woman and child in the state? These and hundreds of like questions are answered in this book. To most readers the array of facts presented are a surprising revelation.

In Khaki and Blue

Read Wisconsin's War Record and get the facts. Give it to the boys and girls to read. It's a lesson in real patriotism.

Written by Fred. L. Holmes, author of "Regulation of Railroads and Public Utilities in Wisconsin" and of a series of articles on early Wisconsin history.

Bound in khaki cloth; letters in navy bluue. Illustrated. Price $1.00. Fill out the order blank before edition is exhausted.

SKI ARTISTS TRAIN FOR BIG CARNIVAL

Five Mile Run and Long Jumps will Feature Program.

Wisconsin students aae to be treated to a surprise at the Winter Sports carnival which is to be held on Feb. 8, when the ski champions of the U will compete in a five mile endurance run and jumping meet.

At present the prospects are for a close contest as several accomplished ski runners and jumpers have announced their intention of entering. The meet will take on something of an international aspect as several of the most proficient ski artists are Norwegian students, and the native sons of this country will have to work hard to keep their laurels.

MADISON MEN SHOOTING GOOD TOURNEY SCORES

Latest Madison scores at the trapshooting tournament at Pinehurst, N. C., were: F. B. Hatfield, Madison, 286; Guy V. Deering, Columbus, 285; H. L. Brubaker, Madison, 263; Andrew Mayers, Madison, 263; C. C. Doring, Madison, 231.

Mark S. Hootman, Hicksville, O., won the Pinehurst championship. Frank S. Wright, with a total of 295 out of 300, is leading in the 450-target event.

TEAM BRACED FOR CONTEST WITH ILLINOIS

Fans to See Zulfer and Knapp in Action Saturday.

From the way the squad is buckling down in practice work, the Badgers can be counted on to take a dose against Illinois Saturday night.

It will be a rejuvenated Cardinal five that takes the floor against the Suckers, and Wisconsin fans will see a different brand of basketball played by their team than they witnessed in the contest with Northwestern. Captain Zulfer will be seen in action for the first time, and there is every probability that Knapp will work in one of the forward positions. "Mike" warmed up in his first practice session yesterday and was pronounced in fine condition.

Illinois staged a strong comeback after the Purdue defeat by downing the Ohio State five, 25 to 20, Monday night at Urbana. The game was Ohio State's first with a conference team. Captain Ingwersen, at guard is the mainstay of the Illini and is fast injecting real fight into his mates. Mittelman is doing stellar work at forward, and the Badger guards will be called on for stiff defense work to keep him down.

Michigan opened its conference season Monday night with a victory over the Indiana five by a score of 28 to 22. The Wolverines will get a harder test Friday night when they meet the Maroons at Chicago, and on Saturday night when they tackle Northwestern. Iowa also plays two games this week, Friday at Indiana and against Purdue on Saturday. Minnesota has no game scheduled this week, but will meet Illinois next Monday night.

Plans are going forward to hold a monster massmeeting at the gym tomorrow night. Everyone will be urged to turn out to make this pep meeting crowd the gym to overflowing and start some real Badger spirit back of the team.

GILL AND "TECK" BACK ON H.S. FIVE

Madison Basket Team Plans to Beat Beloit; Football Champs to Banquet

With the return of Gill and Teckemeyer, Madison high school's basketball team is going into the game with Beloit at the line city, Friday night, with high hopes of winning. Gill and Gunderson, forwards; Diebold, center; Teckemeyer and Myers, guards, is the probable lineup for this game. Nichols and Druhliner are the leading substitutes. Coach Chase and Manager Andrew Dyer will accompany the team.

The state championship football squad will hold its annual banquet at the Park hotel, Monday night. Principal Volney G. Barnes, Voyta Wrabetz, Coach Chase and Assistant Coach R. W. Huegel will be present with the team. Numerals and letters will be awarded and a captain elected for next year's football team.

The juniors defeated the sophomores, 14 to 8, Monday night in the class basketball series. The freshmen will meet the seniors tonight, Thursday, and the sophomores are scheduled to meet the Randall school five Friday.

DAIRY CONTROL PROTESTED BY EQUITY UNION

Farmers Oppose Cheese Factory Legislation and Handling of Products

Resolutions opposing the supervision of the dairy and food commissioner over construction of cheese factories and creameries and the handling of farm products by the international food control were unanimously adopted by the Dane County Equity union in annual meeting at the court house, Wednesday.

The resolutions are as follows:

"We, the members of the Dane County Union of the A. S. of E., representing 1,000 members, by unanimous vote petition the legislature to vote against the enactment of any law whereby the further construction of cheese factories and creameries and the right to judge of the necessity thereof shall be placed under the authority and supervision of the dairy and food commissioner.

"We regard the proposed legislation as dangerous and undemocratic and designed to play into the hands of proprietary dairy interests unfriendly to the co-operative movement in this state.

"The Dane County Union of the A. S. of E., meeting in annual convention in Madison, Wis., Jan. 22, 1919, wishes to go on record with respect to the international food control which has been created with Herbert Hoover as director general.

"We believe that there is great danger that this gigantic organization with supreme power over shipping, purchasing, and distribution, will be used to bear down on the price of farm products and that the city viewpoint, which wants cheap food, will prevail over the farmers' just demands for the cost of production plus a fair profit.

"We are opposed to any appropriation by Congress for the handling of farm products by the International Food Control, unless the farm organizations of the United States have official representation on the Food Control Board or on some committee entrusted with the expenditure of this money."

H. B. Fargo, Mt. Horeb, was elected president of the union; William Radke, Black Earth, vice-president; and J. A. Hogan, Waunakee, secretary-treasurer. The following were chosen for the educational committee: C. A. Lyman, Madison, chairman; William Radke, Black Earth; and Joren McComb, Stoughton.

SWITZERLAND ASKS TO BE HEARD ON PEACE

President Ader to Confer With President; Asks Access to Sea

PARIS (Wednesday) — President Ador of Switzerland, who arrived here from Berne today before he meets President Wilson tomorrow, will confer with President Poincare, Premier Clemenceau, and possibly Premier Lloyd George.

He comes to Paris bearing an official statement of the views of the Swiss government on pending international questions, which will be laid before the peace congress. The statement says:

"1—Switzerland expects to be admitted to the peace negotiations as far as they will deal with her own interests or with problems of general importance. Exclusion from deliberations on problems of the league of nations would be considered by the Swiss people as inconsistent with the principles of democracy. Neutral states have suffered severely in consequence of the war. All have been able, especially in the case of Switzerland, to render considerable service to humanity.

"2—Switzerland highly approves of the creation of a league of nations for preserving peace and expects from it a complete reform of international relations. Consequently the maintenance of peace must be founded upon a general interdiction to parties in conflict not to resort to arms. International conflicts must, as far as their character allows, be solved either by arbitration tribunals or by a permanent international court offering every guarantee of political independence. Other international disputes must be submitted to a procedure of mediation through which lasting settlements on the basis of equity and justice can be arrived at.

"3—Switzerland recognizes the necessity for action which may ultimately consist of military pressure within the system of the league of nations. Nevertheless, Switzerland is determined not to abandon her neutrality which is laid down in the Swiss constitution and based on the tradition of 400 years of peaceful politics. This neutrality is necessary for Switzerland on account of her being in a particularly exposed strategical position.

"4—Freedom of production and commerce is of vital importance for Switzerland. As far as limitations will be imposed concerning importation, exportation and free passage of goods and raw materials, all states should mutually accord each other most favored nation treatment.

"5—Switzerland, as a land-locked country, highly approves of the principle of free access to the sea. Switzerland attributes great importance to the maintenance and improvement of the existing international waterway of the Rhine from Basel to the North sea. Switzerland fully expects that it will soon be possible to come to an understanding with France and Italy for opening the Rhone and Po Ticino rivers for navigation on a large scale and obtain recognition of similar principles regarding these rivers as are in vogue for already internationalized waterways. It also is of vital interest to Switzerland to obtain right of passage over railroads to the sea and through European states eastward.

"6—The political, legal and economic principles formulated by Pres. Wilson are so entirely in conformity with the traditional wants of Switzerland that she will adhere to them, whatever difficulties may lie in the way of their realization."

SOCIALISTS AND DEMOCRATS TO HEAD ASSEMBLY

Combination Will Control in German Body

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON (Wednesday)—It is impossible as yet to forecast clearly the results of the German election, according to an official wireless dispatch sent out from Berlin and picked up here. The impression prevails, however, the dispatch says, that the majority socialists have by far the strongest party, while the democrats will doubtless stand at the head of the non-socialist parties.

It is assumed, it is said, that the majority socialists and the democrats, supported by an overwhelming majority of the people, will be in position to dominate the national assembly. Among those whose seats are assured are Count Posadowsky, Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former Chief of Police Eichhorn and Hugo Haase.

The dispatch adds that the German armistice commission has announced that according to a statement made by Marchal Foch at Treves, sea transport for about 25,000 German soldiers assembled at Nikolayev, Russia, as well as German troops at Haifa, Syria, will be undertaken by the entente. It is said that only one of the allied powers has not agreed to the plan.

if they are not permitted to speak their thoughts the conference went on record for the release of all political prisoners. This was based on the custom from time immemorial when political prisoners were released at the close of the war."

Speaking of the child in industry Mrs. McCreary said:

"There is just one reason for having children in industry. That is that some men are more interested in making money than they are in child welfare or the welfare of the state. There is just one reason for a man letting his child go into industry and that is because he cannot make enough money alone to give his family the necessities of life."

Mrs. McCreary called attention to the stand of the Wisconsin Federation of Labor which says that there shall be no child labor and declares for the raising of both the industrial and school age to 16 years.

Regarding the stand of Gov. Philipp, who recently met a delegation of unemployed in Madison and said that women must get out of industry, Mrs. McCreary said:

"I want to tell his honor, the governor, that the women are in industry to stay. He can't settle this problem by merely telling them to get out. It is a bread and butter proposition with the woman as well as the man in industry. She must now be taken into consideration."

To those women who went into industry at a lower wage than that paid to men, Mrs. McCreary said:

"I am ashamed of the women who have gone into unfair competition with their brother workers. No woman has a right to go into industry unless she is going to play fair, uphold the standards that men have gained through struggle and sacrifice, and help her brother to raise those standards still higher."

Regarding a statement of Prof. Commons that in Wisconsin a trade union organization, under the law, is unlawful, Mrs. McCreary said:

"I don't care whether it is lawful or not. The workers have a right to organize to protect themselves. And when we all get organized and considering that we are a majority of the people, who is going to stop us?"

This statement was greeted with a tumult of applause.

Mrs. McCreary also urged the workers to organize not only economically but politically. She said: "The spring elections are coming. There are judges to be elected. If there are strikes this summer it will make a lot of difference to us what kind of men we have got sitting as judges."

RESOLUTION FOR FEDERAL OWNERSHIP

Assemblyman Metcalfe in Measure in the Assembly

BY FRED L. HOLMES.

A resolution calling upon congress to purchase and operate the railroads of the United States was offered in the lower house today by Assemblyman Frank B. Metcalfe, Milwaukee.

The resolution is in direct opposition to the message recommendation of Gov. Philipp, who asked the legislature to pass a resolution asking congress to return the railroads to private ownership as soon as possible. An interesting debate is foreseen in the legislature over these two opposite ideas. The resolution suggesting the idea of the executive has not been offered as yet, but Gov. Philipp intends to have it offered in a few days.

In an interview today, Gov. Philipp expressed himself as opposed to government ownership. He said that in 10 months, with higher rates than were ever charged and with poorer service there was a deficit of $250,000,000 to be met by the government.

The Metcalfe resolution points out that at the time of the nation's greatest need, the railroad system under private ownership broke down; hat in order to carry on the war successfully and "to bring order out of chaos" it became necessary for the government to take charge of the private systems.

"The success of seven months of government control is attested by the report of the director general of railroads in a list of economies," says the Metcalfe resolution. "These are as follows: A saving of $4,614,889 a year upon salaries of men receiving over $5,000 a year. Under private ownership 2,325 officers drawing salaries of $5,000 a year or more were employed with aggregate salaries of $21,320,187. Under government control 1,925 (a reduction of 400) are doing the same work, at an aggregate salary of $16,705,289.

"A reduction in the amount of higher salaries. Under private control salaries as high as $100,000 per annum were paid to railway presidents. Under government control the highest salaries are from $40,000 to $50,000, and are paid to regional directors whose responsibilities and duties are much greater than those of railroad presidents.

"Reduction in legal expenses by almost $1,500,000 annually.

"Increase in the wages and shortening of the hours of lower paid railway employes.

"Establishment of a uniform freight classification. Closing of unnecessary freight and ticket offices with a resultant saving of $23,066,633. Elimination of unnecessary trains. Trains leave at successive hours instead of at the same time, and tickets are good over various roads.

"Shortening of freight routes. During a period of 60 days under government control 8,999 cars were re-routed in a certain western territory so as to affect a saving in the mileage traveled by each car of 195 miles, equal to a total of 1,754,805 car miles. Standardization of freight cars and locomotives begun. Insurance by the government of its own risks. If this had been done in the past three years, the public would have profited to the amount of $3,560,730—an excess of premiums over losses paid insurance companies during that period." The resolution will go to the transportation committee for a hearing.

Asks Organization That Will Inherit Defense Council Unity

NEW YORK — To meet the emergencies of the readjustment and demobolization period the council of national defense through the state and territorial councils and its woman's committee, has asked that legislation be instituted in the various states to provide for the development of wholesome community organization under a permanent state leadership on a non-partisan basis to succeed the present system. This announcement was made here today by Grosvenor B. Clarkson, director of the United States council of national defense.

Mr. Clarkson stated that the machinery of the council is comprised of 184,400 units of state, county and community councils which since the signing of the armistice have added to their activities the formation of more than 1,800 employment bureaus. He declares it is now evident that for the best interests of all elements that "this vast network of community should become the permanent heirs of the state council of defense system."
